Land of Myths: Belek

Belek is in the middle of a region which is a rich water basin known as Pamphylia in the ancient era. Pamphylia means “place of all races”, and as its name suggests, it is a significant geography since ages. Researches in Pamphylia show that civilizations survived on these lands until the paleolithic age.

You can trace the mysteries of history in Belek which is 17 km, 22 km, and 15 km away from important cities of Pamphylia region, i.e. Aspendos, Perge and Sillyon, respectively. Belek, a crossroads of civilization, is a fascinating tourism paradise with its antique identity leaving a mark in the memories and hearts of millions of people...
