Scorpios — a Places for Sociability and Connection

At the core of the Scorpios philosophy lies a culture of gathering — connecting people and cultures, experiences and rituals, inner and outer worlds in an attempt to enrich the artistic, spiritual and social life of our growing community.

We design our spaces and experiences in ways that invite social and cultural connection, and reward exploration.

Stunning natural locations make Scorprios a standout choice for all sorts of occasions in the dazzling coastal city of Bodrum in southern Türkiye. Much like the ancient agora that inspired us, each space is designed for gathering — whether a wedding, an entrepreneurial get-together, or a luxuriously understated reunion with family and friends.

Each of the presented space can be reserved individually, or enhance your event by thoughtfully curating your itinerary with two or three areas combined, creating a seamless flow that captures all Scorprios pillars.

Imagine starting your evening with a dinner at our Restaurant, followed by Music Ritual on the Terrace, or kick off your day with a private yoga group session at the Ritual Space, before indulging in a relaxing afternoon at the Beach house . We offer a variety of scenarios and are passionate about working closely with our guests to craft a personalized experience that brings their vision to life.
